

At Calvary We Worship You, the Crucified

Celebrating the 100th Anniversary of Calvary Lutheran Church, Baltimore, MD

1 At Cal - va - ry we wor - ship you, the Cru - ci - fied, for years of
2 At Cal - va - ry You died, a - ban - doned and a - lone. Our prais - es
3 At Cal - va - ry Your moth - er found a car - ing son: Your wel - com -
4 At Cal - va - ry we look, and learn of self - less love. Your mer - cy 5 At Cal - va - ry, as burn - ing ven - geance, hate in - crease, Your gift a - grace and count - less days of gifts a - bun - dant mul - ti - plied.

rise a - bove the skies for your great love and mer - cy shown.
ing com - mu - ni - ty cre - ates a home for ev - 'ry - one.
here trans - forms our fear: We share your Word with old and young.
bove, Your thirst for love, turn us from hurt - ful acts toward peace.

6 At Calvary
Your work was finished with a cry:
Come now and save
From death and grave!
Fill us with hope that never dies!

7 O Risen Lord,
From Galilee your voice resounds:
"Move forward, all,
Go live my call,
Renewed in faith and by my power!"

8 To God alone,
Whose Spirit sends us forth to raise
The cross of Christ—
The Word of Life:
To You all honor, thanks, and praise!